5th October 2015

Dear Parent/Carer

As a member of the Gifted & Talented Cohort, your son is invited to take part in the prestigious Athenaeum Debates on TUESDAY 6th OCTOBER. He will be provided with lunch and a tour of the antiquated books at the Athenaeum Club. After the Debating sessions, we will make a short walk to Liverpool Town Hall, where we will be given a guided tour of some of the historic areas of the building. We will be accompanied by John Foulkes MBE, a governor of St Margaret's and long serving member of the Athenaeum Club.

Students should meet near the Athenaeum (outside Primark) at 9:50 am and will be dismissed from the Town Hall at approximately 3:30 pm. If they would prefer to travel from St Margaret's, this can be arranged.

There is no charge for this excursion, but students are required to wear full school uniform.

If you would like your son to take part, please complete the form below and return it upon arrival at the Athenaeum. Should you wish to discuss the excursion further, please contact me at school on 0151 427 1825, or via email at mevans@stmargaretsacademy.com .

Yours sincerely

Miss M Evans
